Youth Talent Show Looking for Participants

GREENFIELD — Can you sing? Can you dance? Can you play an instrument? Whatever your special skill, the Youth Talent Show is looking for you to perform at 7 p.m. on Saturday, June 10 at the H. J. Ricks Centre for the Arts, 122 W. Main St., Greenfield.

To audition, simply submit a YouTube video demonstration of your talent at the registration link at the top of the KidsPlay Inc. children's theatre Facebook page. Those accepted into the show will be notified by June 1. Participants will compete in two age groups (9-13, 14-18) with a limit of 12 in each group. One winner will be selected from each age group, and an overall champion will be chosen. Each winner will receive a trophy. Proceeds from the show benefit KidsPlay Inc. children's theatre. For more information, contact Rylie Gendron at: ragendron@bsu.edu or (317)-427-3561.

Swim Lessons

If you are interested in swim lessons offered by our high school, please click here.

Gently used books or Legos- If your student has books for this age level or legos that you want to donate, please consider donating to our school library. GIS has a new Lego wall that students can use but we need more Legos. All books will be used for our library or used book sale later this year.
